IF ENGAGEMENT = HIGH PERFORMANCE

What can we do to better engage our workforce?

MOTIVATION = ENGAGEMENT = HIGH PERFORMANCE

Internal and external factors stimulating desire and energy to be continually invested & committed to attain
a goal.

The emotional commitment
the employee
has to the organisation and its goals.

High focus and
commitment
to goals that achieve superior business results.

MOTIVATION is the key to engaging and activating a committed,
high performing workforce that achieves organisational goals.

Overview

In this highly participative workshop, we take motivation to a whole new and strategic level within your organisation. Join us for a workshop that aims to:

- * Understand the role motivation plays in influencing performance.
- * Map the motivation levels in individuals, teams and your organisation.
- * Apply these rich findings as a measure of your organisation's overall employee engagement.
- * Use these rich findings to support your organisational employee engagement strategies.
- * Use the language of motivation to create a motivational environment that keeps top performers motivated and engaged, and re-motivates and re-engages the rest.

All workshop attendees will receive a Motivation to High Performance Toolkit that will help them implement what they have learnt back in the workplace.
